Mark Your Calendars: Exploration Meeting

Earlier this year we shared with you at Wednesday Night Supper and in Sunday school classes about happenings in our denomination. We are pleased to follow up on those conversations by hearing from two wonderful leaders in our Annual Conference to First UMC.

On Thursday, December 1, at 7PM, we will welcome our district superintendent, Rev. Paulette Buford-James, and Conference Treasurer David Stotts to FUMC West Point for an exploration meeting in the fellowship hall. It is open to all members of the church. The purpose of this meeting is for Rev. James and Mr. Stotts to share information about what is happening in our denomination, particularly in the area of disaffiliation.

There is a lot of information circulating about the disaffiliation process, and our hope is that this meeting will be fact-finding session that clarifies and answers questions.

Two weeks prior to the meeting, we will include an insert in the newsletter with meeting guidelines. Anyone who plans to attend must comply with these guidelines, and we ask that you read them carefully when they arrive.

We give thanks for this opportunity to gather with these trusted leaders and one another in the first week of Advent—a week representing hope, and how wonderful a hope we have in Christ Jesus our Lord.

all good things to each of you,
Dr. Darian

Newly Appointed Bishop - Last week, the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church announced that the new bishop of the Mississippi annual conference will be Reverend Sharma Lewis. Bishop Lewis currently serves as the bishop of the Virginia Annual Conference. Please be in prayer for our new episcopal leader during this time of transition. We will be sharing more information with you as she prepares to move to Mississippi.

2023 Offering Envelopes are in. Please pick them up on the table at the back of the sanctuary.

MUSIC NOTES

Dear FUMC Family,

Words cannot begin to express my sincere appreciation for allowing me to use my talents and play the piano at FUMC of West Point over the last three and a half years. Even before I became the accompanist, every visit to your wonderful church proved to be such a blessing, and I knew that God was doing something special in and through your church. When the accompanist position became available, I could not turn down the opportunity to be a part, albeit a small part, of what I saw was a valuable ministry to the West Point community through music. Ever since I became the accompanist, I was welcomed and shown so much love from each and every one of you, and I will be forever grateful for the relationships and friendships I developed over the past few years. While we endured the COVID-19 pandemic through a significant portion of my time with you, through leadership, vision, and some adaptation, FUMC of West Point now has an even more substantial reach beyond the West Point community. Even though I might not be physically present every Sunday, I know I can continue to worship with you via social media. Besides, how else am I going to keep Polly in check?

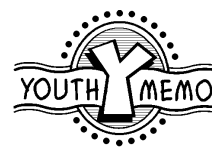

I would be remiss if I leave my tenure with you without specifically thanking the Chancel Choir for their steadfast commitment to leading worship each and every Sunday. While many church choirs continue to dwindle, their weekly commitment to glorify God through song is admirable, and should not go unnoticed or without admiration. I also want to thank Polly Grimes, who was not only able to put up with my sometimes rigorous music selections, but also my invariably sardonic quips and demanding work schedule. To Rachel Wood, thank you for providing steadfast leadership over the music program, and to Dr. Duckworth, thank you for your unwavering support of the music ministry (including some very long preludes and offertories). While I cannot mention each and every one of you by name, and I would if there was space in the newsletter, thank you for opportunity to do what I love; thank you for the love and support during my hip surgeries and recovery last year; and thank you for being the kind of church that shines a light in what can often seem like a dark world. I hope and pray that FUMC of West Point continues to be open and accepting to anyone and everyone who needs a church family--just as you were to me.

Sincerely, Jace Ferraez
